

New buying experience

What has changed?

Autodesk has introduced a new buying experience where you transact directly with Autodesk.

You can still collaborate with your Autodesk Partner for quote requests, and they will continue to provide you with troubleshooting, training, and other critical value-added services to ensure you get the most out of your Autodesk software. However, now you'll receive an emailed quote from Autodesk and will pay directly from within your Autodesk account.

Why has it changed?

We recognize that your time is important and understand your desire for more personalized and efficient experiences. That's why we are working together to streamline and improve your buying experience.

How did it change?

Personalized experience

We're setting the foundation to create more personalized experiences tailored to your needs.

Streamlined process

New self-service capabilities will allow you to efficiently manage your purchases, including your preferences for payment, subscription terms, and renewals.

Predictable pricing

Enjoy consistent pricing, regardless of how you buy.

New buying experience resources

New buying experience overview

Learn more about the new buying experience, what's changing, and key benefits.

How to purchase with a quote

Learn how to purchase a subscription and/or Flex tokens with a quote and see enhanced self-service capabilities available in your account.
